THE CHORAL SOCIETIES' DIRECTORY for 1869. The Compilers of this work (the first number of which will appear in a few weeks) beg respectfully to solicit from the Secretaries of the various Choral, Philharmonic, and Oratorio Societies throughout the United Kingdom, a short statement of the following facts:—Name of society, number of members, how long established, names and addresses of Secretary, Treasurer, and Conductor, number of concerts given during the past year, and the music performed at each, annual subscription payable by members, and a list of Choral and Orchestral music belonging to the society. Also the names and addresses of vocalists and orchestral players of ability residing in the town. This information will be properly classified, and inserted in the Directory free of charge. The price of the work will be to contributors of information as above and to subscribers, One Shilling; to the general public, Half-a-Crown. Communications should be addressed, without delay, to H. E. Prout and Co., 10, Frankfort-street, Plymouth.

THE C. S. DIRECTORY.—It is particularly requested that the information solicited in the above advertisement be forwarded without delay, in order that the work may be produced during the current month. Intending Subscribers are also requested to remit 14 stamps to the Publishers. The Subscription List will close on the 31st instant.

THE CHORAL SOCIETIES' DIRECTORY for 1869. A circular and printed form for information have been sent to the Secretary of every known Society throughout the kingdom. Those Secretaries who have not received the form, are respectfully requested to apply to the undersigned without delay, when they shall be at once supplied. The Publishers of the Directory beg to remind the various Societies that the completeness and consequent value of the work must depend entirely upon the amount of information forwarded by the Secretaries, as it is impossible to obtain it from any other source.

THE CHOIRMASTER: a Monthly Musical Magazine, and Review of Music, sacred and secular. Price 3d.

OPINIONS OF READERS.

"There must be an unusual amount of talent, experience, and 'labour in some quarter to produce such a paper.'—"Your paper is so excellently comprehensive that I can conceive nothing better calculated to serve musicians."—"Who writes 'Music in 'London?'" ["Music in London" is the first article in each number of the Choirmaster.—"The reviews in the Choirmaster are 'admirable: you are to music what the Athenæum is to general literature."—"Certainly nothing hitherto has been accomplished in the form of musical literature in England equal to the contents of your journal. Who is your editor? I should much like to know."—"Your article on Rossini was the best I have read."—"Organists owe much to your efforts."—"The touches in the Choirmaster indicate occasionally such an intimate knowledge of orchestral effects that I am curious to know something of its staff."—"In your leader on Concert Pitch you have brushed away many cobwebs."—"I congratulate you on extending the same thorough treatment which has characterised the Choirmaster in sacred music to secular subjects. Your paper is a monthly 'mirror of the progress of the art.'"
